

END MALE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

INTRODUCTION

We write the report for 2019, as we are experiencing the impact of the global Coronavirus pandemic. With the rise on violence against women during lockdown our mission of working with people, especially men and boys, to individually and collectively take action and change behaviour is more important than ever.

We are able to reach many thousands of people through our work. This is achieved very effectively by working in partnership with others and through a network of supporters, White Ribbon Ambassadors, and Champions. Our partners are working with us right across England and Wales to change the cultures that lead to violence against women and girls. By working together we can prevent violence happening in the first place.

In 2019, our long-established accreditation programme for organisations was reviewed and the revised programme introduced. By the end of 2019 there were nearly 90 White Ribbon Accredited organisations, across many sectors, and this number is expected to increase in 2020.

We now have a new programme for young people, White Ribbon Youth Advocates. This was developed after requests from our partners for something akin to the White Ribbon Ambassador role, especially for young men. In June our Annual White Ribbon Conference took place in London with the theme, "Violence Against Women: It's Everyone's Issue". White Ribbon Day on 25th November, and the following days of action, saw awareness raising activities across the country.

We have continued to campaign throughout the year, engaging with Westminster through the White Ribbon APPG, and by working alongside other organisations in the sector. We were pleased to see the 'Upskirting' Bill become law, something we had campaigned for. Ahead of the General Election in December, we called on all candidates to make reforming the law on domestic abuse a priority. The long needed Domestic Abuse Bill had been making its journey through the house as the election was called.

None of this would be possible without the commitment of the many people who support us and fundraise for us. We know that many people support us because their lives, or the lives of those people close to them, have been affected by male violence. We take the responsibility of your support very seriously. Thank you for helping us to work towards a world without male violence against women.

YOUTH ADVOCATES

One of our major projects during 2019 was developing and launching the White Ribbon Youth Advocates Programme. We responded to an approach from Deke Williams, Next Generation Officer from White Ribbon Accredited Gwent Police, enquiring about a youth version of the White Ribbon Ambassador Programme.

We brought our expertise and experience of working with men and boys and worked closely in partnership with the Gwent Youth Cadets themselves, who contributed their lived experience and expertise to the project.

Deke Williams - Gwent Police Next Generation Officer

"A 'Youth Advocate' is not only a vital role in the youth arena; it also means we have young people reaching out to young people of similar ages, delivering messages between peers. As part of their Youth Advocate role, the Cadet take part in roadshows, community events, hosting information days and promotional videos to reach out to wider communities."

The Youth Advocate Programme is now available to schools, colleges and youth groups.

The testimony from White Ribbon ambassador, John Clough, who started the Justice for Jane campaign after his daughter was murdered by her ex-partner are shared at March4Women.

Former Dr Who and Broadchurch actor, David Tennant, spoke at Care International's March4Women on International Women's Day. Wearing a white ribbon, Tennant read.

"Since Jane's death, I have actively campaigned for change in the Criminal Justice System... Together we have continued to be a voice for victims. For victims like my daughter, Jane. My daughter had so much love to give. Not just to us as her family, and her own child, my granddaughter. But to someone who would treat her with respect, and allow her to shine in her own right. Every girl, every woman deserves that respect."

WHITE RIBBON ACCREDITATION PROGRAMME

The White Ribbon Accreditation programme for organisations was reviewed and revised during the year. To support this work we introduced the role of partnerships officer and welcomed Jo Wood to White Ribbon.

There are now nearly 100 organisations who are accredited. To achieve White Ribbon Accreditation organisations will develop, and commit to, a three-year action plan that meets core criteria in strategic leadership, engaging with men and boys, raising awareness and changing culture. Action plans give scope for innovation and creativity, ensuring that key messages are being shared in a way that is appropriate for each organisation, what it does and who is involved. All organisations are expected to reach out to their local communities, for example by having stalls at local events, and by working with partners.

White Ribbon Annual Conference

The White Ribbon Conference in June brought together more than 120 change makers, including representatives from the public and voluntary sector, businesses and our volunteer White Ribbon ambassadors and champions, to address the theme, 'Male Violence Against Women It's Everyone's Issue'.

Keynote speaker was White Ribbon Ambassador and Refuge Champion, Luke Hart who summed up the necessity to change the way men see themselves before we can hope to end violent behaviour:

'Leeds United and White Ribbon Accredited Leeds City Council worked together in November to raise awareness about domestic abuse.

In the warm-up for their match against Middlesbrough at Elland Road on 30th November, the West Yorkshire team wore white Ribbon t-shirts with slogan, 'Show domestic abuse the red card". Information about White Ribbon UK was included in their match-day programme, and a video was produced in collaboration with Safer Leeds, the council's community safety partnership. The team spoke from the heart about why it is important for men to take a stand. This was relayed on the the big screen before and after the match.

WHITE RIBBON DAY ON 25TH

November and the subsequent 16 days of action saw thousands of people making the White Ribbon Promise, wearing a White Ribbon and raising awareness over the two and a half weeks. Many organisations organised events and made sure that the importance of coming together to end violence against women was high profile and widely shared.

WEST YORKSHIRE AMBASSADORS

We were supported by the West Yorkshire Safer Communities Fund to work with White Ribbon ambassadors in West Yorkshire.

This enabled us to connect and liaise with our ambassadors in the region and identify ways in which we could develop better support and training.

Participants at a networking session described their own 'journey' and how they interpret their role as a White Ribbon Ambassador to raise awareness in their own communities.

There are "...conflicting messages – emotion – resilience – need to show and treat everyone with respect"

"Since I grew up there's been a shift and transition of identity – men's identity"

A clear message for us was how participants thought that White Ribbon ambassadors should engage with other men.

"Men find it hard to think where they fit in society"

It's "... unusual to have 50% care of children – I'm not 'just 'a 'Saturday' dad"

'I think we should celebrate positive role modelling

THANK YOU

Our voice is strengthened by working together with our supporters, ambassadors, champions, organisations and policy makers, to raise awareness, educate and campaign to bring about change. These partners are working with us right across England and Wales engaging with many thousands of people to change the cultures that lead to violence against women and girls. Together we can prevent violence happening in the first place.

We can't do this important work on our own

IN MEMORY

We are truly grateful for the support that comes to us from the family and friends of women who had lost their lives because of male violence. We take very seriously our duty to build a legacy for every woman whom we have come to know by name, and for all women affected by male violence, by continuing and developing our work to change the male cultures that lead to such abuse.

Grace Millane

Grace Millane was an independent, strong and brave woman who was taken from her friends and family at the end of 2018. Together they wanted to do something in her memory and raise as much money as possible for White Ribbon Campaign UK.

51 people took part in a Nuclear Charity Race in memory of Grace. All of the 51 people who took part were either family/friends/family friends of Grace's, including Grace's mum Gillian, and together raised £11,872.

Grace's Ribbon

Achievements and performance

In 2019, our long-established accreditation programme for organisations was reviewed, and the new programme was introduced. To become White Ribbon Accredited, organisations have to develop an action plan to demonstrate how they will achieve four core criteria; Strategic Leadership, Engaging Men and Boys, Changing Culture and Raising Awareness. At the end of 2019 there were nearly 90 White Ribbon Accredited organisations, across many sectors, and this number is expected to increase in 2020.

A White Ribbon Youth Advocates Programme was developed during the year. We had received requests for a White Ribbon Ambassador role that was suitable for younger people, especially for young men. The Programme was launched in the run up to White Ribbon Day and the first cohort of Youth Ambassadors were presented with their certificates at a White Ribbon Day event held by the Senedd in Wales.

The Annual White Ribbon Conference was held on June 5th in London with the theme, "Violence Against Women: It's Everyone's Issue". Speakers included, Gavin Newlands MP, White Ribbon Ambassador and Refuge Champion - Luke Hart, documentary filmmaker - Leslie Lee, Dr Rosemary Hill and Dr Stephen Burrell. We received funding from the West Yorkshire Safer Communities Fund to work with West Yorkshire White Ribbon Ambassadors. This project enabled us to engage directly with ambassadors in West Yorkshire, to listen to what they thought about their role and to learn what support they felt was most helpful to them in their own contexts. One outcome was the request for more online training and resources and we are looking to address this during 2020.

White Ribbon Day was on the 25th November, and the following days of action, saw awareness raising activities across the country. White Ribbon Accredited Leeds City Council worked with Leeds United, whose team wore White Ribbon T shirts during the warm-up for their match against Middlesbrough at Elland Road. The Diocese of Rochester in Kent held events, including A morning With Ryan Hart, church services and produced an awareness raising video. Newly White Ribbon Accredited, Tyne and Wear Fire and Rescue Service raised awareness with an online campaign and the White Ribbon symbol was printed across the fleet of fire engines. The organisation has continued to campaign throughout the year, engaging with Westminster through the White Ribbon APPG, and by working alongside other organisations in the sector. We were very pleased to see the 'Upskirting' Bill become law. Our chief executive, Anthea Sully, appeared on BBC News and News 24 talking about the knighthood awarded to Geoffrey Boycott. We called on all candidates to be challenged on whether their priorities, if elected, would include reforming the law on domestic abuse; as the long needed Domestic Abuse Bill had been making its journey through the House as the election was called.

White Ribbon UK is able to reach many thousands of people through its work. This is achieved in a very effective way by working in partnership with others and through a network of supporters, White Ribbon Ambassadors and Champions. Ensuring there is funding for what we want to do continues to be challenging. Revising the accreditation programme took time during 2019, which meant a delay in fee income and there has been a period of reflection following two major projects that closed in 2018. In 2020 White Ribbon will be addressing these issues and also looking at other sources of income, especially in the provision of training where there is a demonstrable need.

We would not be able to undertake our work without the support of the many people who fundraise for us. Many of the fundraising activities in 2019 were led by the family and friends of women who had lost their lives because of male violence. We take very seriously our duty to build a legacy for every woman whom we have come to know by name, and for all women affected by male violence, by continuing and developing our work to change the male cultures that lead to such abuse.

Financial review

The net expenditure for the year was £46,375, including net expenditure of £46,405 on unrestricted funds and net income of £30 on restricted funds.

The deficit has largely resulted from writing off £21,369 of obsolete stock items, incurring some necessary legal fees and costs incurred in undertaking a major review of the accreditation programme in the year.

Reserves policy

The charity's free reserves, excluding fixed assets, at the year end were £98,111.

The trustees aim to maintain sufficient reserve funds to cover a minimum of 6 months running costs which is calculated as £75,000.

Coronavirus impact statement

The Board held weekly meetings in the first stages of the crisis and have continued to meet regularly and assess cashflow forecasts.

Some staff have been furloughed for different periods of time.

All expenditure where possible has been reduced.

In terms of income generation – attention has been focused on:

Funding applications

Ways of driving online sales

Driving accreditations

Exploring ways of delivering online – such as training and an online conference.

Uncertainties identified:

Less fundraising activities taking place

Shop had to close from April to July – loss of income

Conference cancelled – planned to raise £8,000

Slow down in accreditations.

We cannot predict how Covid- 19 will affect income generation from September to December 2020.

Ongoing viability – We believe that ongoing tight oversight by the Board and measures put in place will mean organisation will continue, albeit there may need to be new ways of working and further reductions in expenditure including staff costs.
